

Achewon Nimat Lodge invites

ALL Troops & Crews & Ships in the Bay Area to the "Coolest" event in the San Francisco Bay Area Council:

The KLONDIKE DERBY

at Snowflower Resort on 5 - 7 Mar 2010.

(Snowflower Preserve is 161 miles East of San Francisco. Follow I-80 to the Yuba Gap Exit (~39 miles East of Auburn). At the exit, turn right. At the "Y", take the left road. Follow the posted signs from there.)

Registration had to be increased to $15.00 per attendee (youth and adult) for 2010. On 19 Feb, the fee increases to $20.00 per attendee. On-Site, the fee increases, again, to $25.00 to cover the increased costs. No Discounts are available for 2010. (Refunds cannot be made at the Klondike.)

You can camp in the snow on the Fri & Sat nights, OR you can come up just for the Sat events. You don't have to bring a sled or stay overnight, JUST COME PREPARED TO HAVE A WHOLE LOT OF FUN IN THE SNOW WITH US!!

For your fun and pleasure at the Klondike Derby, we will be providing new events for your youth to participate in, and award new patches, upon successful completion of the requirements.

We will support the same major events as held in the past; Build the Snowman, The Biathlon, Build a Snowshelter, and of course, The famous Sled Race as the final event.

We will also have the Klondike Derby Backpatches available for purchase and your wearing pleasure.

The Klondike Derby will go on regardless of the weather; be it snow, rain, or sunshine. (Only the closure of I-80 will stop it.) Build or fix that sled, hone your cold weather skills, & get yourselves up to the 2010 Klondike Derby!!
